number of the lot chosen, and shall thereupon attend at the office of the Minister of the Interior, bringing a fee of two dollars, which shall be paid to the Minister of the Interior if such application is accepted and the proper papers signed and delivered. No one will be allowed to acquire more than one lot, provided, however, that persons will be allowed to acquire two lots, where one of them is kula land only and one is wet or kula land only.

Minister of the Interior.

SECTION 3. Upon receiving written applications for any of the said lots, the same shall be filed with the date of their receipt, in case of more persons applying for the same lot, the one whose application is first received shall have the preference; provided, however, that if he should not attend in person or by attorney at the office of the Minister of the Interior within one week from the time of the receipt of his application, the second applicant shall have the preference of all the others in the same manner, and so on to other applicants. Upon considering the respective applications the Minister of the Interior shall grant the same upon the payment of the fee of two dollars, which shall be paid to the Minister of the Interior together with the application, and shall deliver to the applicant a receipt for the same, and shall also deliver to the Minister of the Interior a duplicate of the same, which shall be filed with the Minister of the Interior, and shall be subject to the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 4. This Act shall become a law from and after its publication.

Approved this 21st day of August, A. D. 1884. KALAKAUA, REX.

AN ACT

To PREVENT THE WASTE OF ARTESIAN WATER ON THE ISLAND OF OAHU.

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands, in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled:

SECTION 1. Every flowing artesian well now on the Island of Oahu, or that may hereafter be made on said Island, shall be capped by the owner or owners thereof in such a manner as to give complete control over the flow of water from the pipe of such well.

SECTION 2. No person having the right to the use of water from any such artesian well, shall allow the same to run to waste, but shall use it for irrigation, domestic and other useful purposes, except for driving machinery, provided, however, that such water may be used for driving machinery in case he is unable to procure irrigation or other useful purposes.

SECTION 3. Any person violating the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this Act, shall upon conviction thereof before any Judge or District Court of the Island of Oahu, be fined not more than fifty dollars.

SECTION 4. For the more effectual carrying out of this Act, the Marshal and Deputy Marshal of the Kingdom, and all Police of the Island of Oahu, may at all times of night or day, enter without warrant any premises whereon artesian water is used.

SECTION 5. This Act shall become a law from and after its publication.

Approved this 21st day of August, A. D. 1884. KALAKAUA, REX.
